

W. G. TANDY

Commissioner for Street and Public Improvements Candidate for Re-Nomination for the Office of Commissioner of Topeka.

announcing my candidacy for the renomination for city commissioner, first, I desire to thank my friends and neighbors for their support in the past and their activity on my behalf in the coming campaign. I wish to recall the promise which a made to these friends a year ago when I told them if elected commissioner of Topeka I would be on the job, that I would do all in my power to improve the streets and conditions of the city and to the extent of the funds at the disposal of my department.

This promise I have tried to fulfill. If my friends are satisfied with the efforts made and work accomplished I respectfully solicit their support again for the coming spring election. I wish to emphasize and renew that former promise. If given the second term as commissioner of Topeka I will be on the job and will do all in my power to make a success of the administration and for the up building of Topeka.

INDICATE BAD BLOOD

Where the blood is pure any wound or laceration of the flesh heals "by first intention." This is true because nature has provided a constituent to the circulation known as Plasma, which joins and holds the place together until the fibres and tissues can permanently knit and interweave. Whenever the ulcer becomes chronic it is because this healing quality of the blood has been impaired by some impurity in the circulation, and the place remains open, infecting all surrounding flesh, until the character of the circulation is changed. No sore can heal where the blood is bad; because the morbid impurities on which it thrives are constantly deposited into it by the burdened circulation. Cleanse the blood and the sore will heal of its own accord, because then its very source and foundation will have been destroyed. S. S. Discusses the Effect on Corn and Wheat Prices.

Columbus, O., Feb. 10.—Traveling in a special car, President: Taft arrived here at 1:45 this afternoon to deliver his address on the Canadian reci-procity treaty at the National Corn exposition. He was escorted through the city by troop B. Ohio national guard, and a provisional cavalry detachment made up of officers of the Second bri-

This evening he will be the guest at a banquet given in his honor by the corn show officials and the faculty of the Ohio state university and later will attend the Lincoln ball of the Buckeye Republican club.

"Reciprocity with Canada will bene-fit the entire United States, farmer manufacturer, railroad company, mid-dle man and warehouse man." This was the declaration made by the president in an address at the National Corn exposition. "All will be the gainer," he said.

cially to showing that the farmer had nothing to fear, but much to gain, he attempted to prove also that all the other interests of the country would be benefited by the proposed reciprocity. "We have with pioneer energy pushed on to the Pacific." the president said, "and taken up all the good land. We are now spending millions to reclaim the arid and semiarid lands of the great west desert. Should we not could neither read nor write and was not able to sign his name. He signed hundreds of deeds and legal documents the great west desert. Should we not by taking down a useless and unneces-eary tariff wall, bring within our agricultural resources the great plains of the northwest when they can bring to us what we need and that without hurting any of our own people."

"It is said to be a manufacturers' agreement." he continued, "that is in the interest of the manufacturing classes and adverse to the farmer.

Protection Policy Medified. "I am a Republican and the Republican party has always advocated and pursued a policy of protection to an object of curiosity for attaches of American products and manufactures. For a long time the policy had little or "It's just a good old timekeeper, that's all," said Judge Landis yesterday, "I like it better than the new fangled ones the government furnishes and I'm going to keep court by it, no matter what the other clocks declars the time to be." no limitation. Effect on Prices.

He then took up the effect it would have on corn and wheat prices, on the value of farm lands in this country and on the milling industry in this

He declared that "in respect to corn, the American farmer is king and will remain so, reciprocity or no recipro-

Taking up first the effect of the agreement on corn, he said:
"The total production of corn in the United States in 1910 was 3,125,713,-000 bushels, of which we exported 44,072,209 bushels and used the rest in domestic consumption, chiefly in raising cattle and hogs, of which in live cattle and packing house products we exported in value $135,985,212. The Canadian product of corn was 18,726,000 bushels, or six-tenths of one per cent of the total production of the United States. We exported 6,-000,000 bushels to Canada.

"Certainly in respect of corn the American farmer is king and will remain so, reciprocity or no recipro-city. Indeed, the change will greatly help him by increasing his supply of young and thin cattle, now very scarce for feeding with his corn and making

"If the argument as to the disastrous effect of admitting the crops of the Capadian northwest to our markets upon the values of our farm land is correct, then the opening of lands in Kansas, Nebraska and the two Dakotas in the two decades from 1890 to 1910 should have had a similar effect upon the farm lands of the older states. Now, what was the fact? What was the effect upon the farm lands of the older states of the competition of these newer states. "The difference in the value of the acre between Maintoba and Minnesota is but little more than eight dollars, while the difference between Minnesota and Wisconsin is $5. between Wisconsin and Illinois is $5. between Wisconsin and Illinois is $5. between Wisconsin and Indiana is $31. These figures show incontestably that the fear of a reduction in farm land values of this country by letting in Canada's products is wholly unfounded.

"The price of wheat, less transportation and other charges for warehouse and delivery, is fixed by what all the wheat exporting countries, including the United States and Canada, can get for their surplus in Liverpool. Hence, the sending of any part of Canada's surplus through our country instead of through Canada to be milled or to be exported without milling, will not perceptibly or materially affect the price of wheat for our farmers.

"In other words, the advantage we give the Canadaian farmer will not hurt our farmer, for the price will remain our farmer.

give the Canadian farmer will not nurt our farmer, for the price will remain the same; but by patronizing our ele-vators, our flour mills, our railroads, he will secure admission to the world's market at a less cost to himself, while we will secure the advantage of in-creased trade for our elevators, our mills, our railroads and our commis-sion men."
